DIOCESAN MATTERS

509 ARTS

has recently been commissioned by Creative Scene and Batley Business Association to create The Batley Variations, a new opera about the town to be performed by local people. Our most recent opera project, Calderland, (which was premiered in the Piece Hall in September) has just won a Royal Philharmonic Society award, so we are extremely excited to be given the chance to work in Batley on a brand new project.

The Batley Variations will tell the story of contemporary Batley and its ordinary and extraordinary characters over 24 hours (think Under Milk Wood) and be written by the award winning writer Mike Kenny and composer Richard Taylor. It will take place in St Mary's Social Club, which will be transformed into a glamorous nightclub for performances from 23-25 November.

There will be a taster workshop at St Mary's Social Club on the evening of Monday 16th July from 6.30-8pm for anyone interested in finding out more and having a sing through some of the early material. We're recruiting participants for a chorus, for the band and for solo and small group roles - everyone will be welcome. You don't need to be a trained singer or reader of music to take part.
