ST. MARY'S PAROCHIAL HALL AGM

30th APRIL AT 7.00 PM

There has been little response to the appeal for new members or helpers. If the Parish didn't have a Hall they would feel the need for one.... it's there now, it's a wonderful venue, the best in the Diocese and the best in Batley, and if we 'don't use it we will lose it'!

FORTHCOMING FUNERAL

RITA LYONS RIP Thursday 26th April 7.30 pm Reception into Church
Friday 27th April 12.00 noon Requiem Mass

ANNUAL COFFEE MORNING

Well done and thank you to everyone who helped make this event a great success. There were lots of cakes and it was a lovely social occasion.

PRIVATE MICHAEL HUNT (KOYLI) WW1

The Great Grandson of the KOYLI Soldier mentioned above and a Serving NCO in the Royal Air Force in Lincolnshire writes:

My Great Grandfather is due to be remembered in a Wreath Laying Ceremony at Batley Cemetery on Wednesday 17th April 2019, courtesy of Project Bugle, a local historical group who have researched and commemorated all of the Soldiers from the Batley area who fought and died during and shortly after WW1.

Not only will we be remembering the soldier from WWI but also 're-finding' the grave of that soldier's parents - all associated with St Mary's Church.

The event will start at 10.30 am in the Chapel in the Cemetery - All welcome
